QUARTERLY PUBLICATION OF THE FRIENDS OF THE HOUSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

OCTOBER 2007

Friends Children's Book Sale: Best Ever!

The 7th Annual Children's Book Sale was held on September 7–9 at the Doris Miller Center, 5216 Feagan Street. Over 11,000 books were placed in the hands of children from all over Houston and $14,000 dollars was raised for the Friends.

Books sold included fiction and non-fiction for children of all ages. Teachers were able to find classroom sets and other reference materials. Parents had a wide selection of books to choose for their families, everything from bedtime stories to the next science project.

The Friends thank Jim Hundemer and his staff for all their assistance. The Houston Public Library was well represented by staff members who volunteered from the various branches and departments.

Volunteers and warehouse staff were a big part of this effort. Thank you to all for a job well done.

We hope to see you there next year!

Annual Book Sale Dates Set!

The 30th Annual Book Sale will be held May 16-18, 2008 at George R. Brown Convention Center, 1001 Avenida de las Americas. Watch for additional information on the Friends' website at www.friendsofhpl.org.

Not only is it our 30th annual sale, but we celebrate our 10th year at the George R. Brown CC, during their 20th year of show business. Please help us celebrate!

Volunteers will be needed, please consider helping. Contact the Friends office at 832-393-1387 or email us at info@friendsofhpl.org.
